

12:15-1:15pm Lunch Provided, Pyle Center Main Dining Room
In the spirit of supporting new interdisciplinary conversations, a lunch buffet is provided by a generous grant from the UW Eye Research Institute.

1:15-3:15pm: WORKSHOP (prior registration required)
"Topical Contextures and Objectivity," a workshop with Michael Lynch
Pyle Center Room 319

3:30-4:30pm: GALLERY TALK BY EXHIBITION CURATORS
Amy Noell & Beth Zinsli (Art History) discuss "The Scientist's Eye: Dialogues between Art & Science." An exhibition of artist and rare books from the Kohler Art Library and UW-Madison Special Collections.
Kohler Art Library, Chazen Museum of Art

New Directions in Visual Culture

New Directions in Visual Culture is made possible by a grant from the Anonymous Fund. Visualizing Science is co-sponsored by the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, the Eye Research Institute, the Robert F. and Jean E. Holtz Center for Science and Technology Studies, and the Departments of Art, Art History, Medical History and Bioethics, and Sociology.

www.visualculture.wisc.edu

The Visual Culture Center at The University of Wisconsin-Madison
presents

Visualizing Science

a conference featuring keynote speaker
Michael Lynch, Cornell University

7. February until 8. February, 2008
The Chazen Museum of Art and The Pyle Center